Case No.: 2:24-cv-00684-JAD-DJA

Order Directing Supplemental Briefing on Summary-Judgment Issue

9 A central issue in this insurance-coverage action is whether YESCO, LLC qualifies as an 10 additional insured under the terms of Royal Refrigeration Inc.'s commercial general-liability 11 policy issued by Acuity A Mutual Insurance Company. The key definition is found in this 12 endorsement CG-2033 R (6-13):

13 1. Section II - Who Is An Insured is amended to 14 include as an additional insured:

- 15 a. Any person or organization for whom you 16 are performing operations when you and 17 such person or organization have agreed in 18 writing in a contract or agreement that such 19 person or organization be added as an ad-20 ditional insured on your policy; and 21 b. Any other person or organization you are 22 required to add as an additional insured 23 under the contract or agreement described in paragraph a above.

Such person or organization is an additional insured only with respect to liability for bodily injury, property damage or personal and advertising injury caused, in whole or in part, by:

- a. Your acts or omissions; or
b. The acts or omissions of those acting on your behalf;
in the performance of your ongoing operations
for the additional insured.

1 The bulk of argument in the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment is devoted to 2 the first half of that definition and whether or not there was a qualifying written contract or 3 writing that required YESCO to be named as an additional insured. But the second half of this 4 provision has gone ignored. That second half appears to narrow or clarify the additional-insured
 5 coverage by stating that it only applies to such damages "caused . . . by" Royal Refrigeration's 6 "acts or omissions" or "[t]he acts or omissions of those acting on [Royal's] behalf."¹ Yet the 7 personal-injury suit that underlies this coverage action alleges that the cause of the damages for 8 which coverage is sought was not Royal, but rather YESCO. So even if this court were to 9 conclude that YESCO qualifies as an additional insured under the first half of this definition, the 10 second half may disqualify it. Supplemental briefing is needed to answer this question.

11 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Liberty Mutual has until June 16, 2025, to file a 12 supplemental brief in support of its motion for summary judgment, no more than seven pages 13 long, addressing how the following provision impacts the coverage question in this case:

14 Such person or organization is an additional 15 insured only with respect to liability for bodily
injury, property damage or personal and advertising injury caused, in whole or in part, by:
 16 a. Your acts or omissions; or 17 b. The acts or omissions of those acting on
 your behalf;
 18 in the performance of your ongoing operations
 for the additional insured.

19 Acuity will then have until June 20, 2025, to file a response brief in support of its motion for 20 summary judgment of no more than seven pages addressing the same question. No further 21 briefing will be entertained.
